

Campaign: East Europe (Saxony) Campaign duration: 6 fractions Date: August 26 - November 14, 1756 The facts: Fearing encirclement by the Franco-Imperial-Russian coalition, Frederick II decide to invade Saxony, an ally of Austria, to force the latter to surrender. He divide his army into three columns, one led by Ferdinand von Brunswick, one by von Schwerin, and the largest by himself. The emperor responde by sending an army led by von Browne. Map sectors: 5 1st: Prussia Portfolio: 1 - 200 2 - 190 3 - 180 4 - 170 coins Objective: conquer Dresden defend: Breslau (opzionale) Garrisons: Breslau Com: Frederik 4 F vet, 1 C trn, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm with: Bevern 4 F trn, 1 C trn, 1 A vet 6 sup/8 amm Bevern ready to intervene in Breslau if Schwerin abandons the field from: Berlin to: Dresden Com: F. Brunswick 3 F trn, 2 C vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Magdeburg to: Leipzig Brunswick stops in Leipzig ready to replace Bevern in Dresden Com: Schwerin 4 F vet, 1 C trn, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Sternberg to: Breslau 2nd: Empire Portfolio: 1 - 200 2 - 190 3 - 180 4 - 180 coins Objective: conquer Breslau (opzionale) Defend: Dresden Garrisons: Dresden, Leipzig, Prag Com: Browne 5 F vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm with: Kollowrat (Eberardt) 4 F ad, 1 C ad, 1 A vt 6 sup/8 amm from: Brünn to: Dresden Com: Piccolomini (Brentano) 3 F trn, 2 C vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Mährisch-Ostrau to: Breslau with: Lacy 4 F trn, 2 C vet 6 sup/8 amm from: Gütting to: Breslau they gather in Liberec	Campaign: East Europe (Bohemia) Campaign duration: 6 fractions Date: April 17 - June 29, 1757 The facts: Frederick decide to enter Bohemia in search of a definitive victory over Austria. After a bloody pitched battle, he lays siege to Prague. Von Daun moves to relieve the Bohemian capital. Map sectors: 5, 11 1st: Prussia Portfolio: 1 - 200 2 - 190 3 - 180 4 - 170 coins Objective: conquer Prag defend: Dresden (opzionale) Garrisons: Dresden, Leipzig, Breslau Com: Frederik 5 F vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Dresden to: Prag with: Schwerin 4 F trn, 1 C trn, 1 A vet 6 sup/8 amm from: Breslau to: Prag Com: Anhalt-Dessau 3 F trn, 2 C vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Leipzig to: Pilsen Ready to intervene against new armies trying to reach Prague Com: Bevern 4 F vet, 2 C trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Dresden to: Liberec Ready to block the way of armies trying to reach Dresden 2nd: Empire Portfolio: 1 - 200 2 - 190 3 - 180 4 - 170 coins Objective: conquer Dresden (opzionale) defend: Prag Garrisons: Prag, Wien Com: de Lorraine 3 F trn, 2 C vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm with: von Browne 4 F vet, 1 C trn, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Brünn to: Prag Com: Daun 3 F trn, 2 C vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm Try to reach Prague from: Wien to: Prag with: Lacy 5 F vet, 1 A vet 6 sup/8 amm from: Liberec to: Dresden they gather in Liberec
Campaign: East Europe (East Prussia) Campaign duration: 6 fractions Date: May 7 - August 29, 1757 The Russian army marches towards East Prussia with a large force divided into two sections separated by a province. Commander-in-Chief Apraksin fails to organize supplies. Prussian General von Lehwalt receives orders to intercept the Russian army in the Königsberg region. Map sectors: 5, 6 1st: Russia Portfolio: 1 - 110 2 - 100 3 - 90 4 - 80 coins Objective: conquer East Prussia (Ostpreussen) Garrisons: Latvija Com: Apraksin 4 F trn, 1 C trn, 1 A vet 1 sup/8 amm from: Latvija to: Königsberg e da lì a Danzic Com: Fermor 4 F trn, 1 C vet, 1 A trn 1 sup/8 amm (use the picture of an Austrian army) from: Latvija to: last Polish province before Königsberg In Königsberg, he reunites with Apraksin if the latter defeats von Lehwalt, otherwise in the first Polish province on the border with Ostpreussen. Fermor marches one province behind Apraksin. The movement of the two armies occurs simultaneously with a single Event marker for both. 2nd: Prussia Portfolio: 1 - 80 2 - 70 3 - 65 4 - 55 Objective: Defend: East Prussia (Ostpreussen) Garrisons: Danzic Com: von Lehwalt 3 F vet, 2 C trn 1 A vet 4 sup/8 amm from: Danzic to: Königsberg von Lehwalt must try to stop Apraksin at Königsberg, if he loses the battle, he will make a scorched earth action in the province he leaves, stopping at Danzig to wait for the Russian army	Campaign: East Europe (Silesia) Campaign duration: 6 fractions Data: 25 agosto - 22 novembre 1757 I fatti: Sollecitato da Maria Teresa d'Austria, de Lorraine assieme a von Daun lascia i quartieri di Zittau per invadere la Slesia, difesa da von Bevern. Dopo una lunga marcia, le forze imperiali arrivano a Breslau. Map sectors: 5 1st: Empire Portfolio: 1 - 170 2 - 160 3 - 150 4 - 140 Objective: conquer Breslau, conquer Oppeln Garrisons: Wien Com: Nadasdy 4 F trn, 1 C vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Liberec to: Opeln Attacks Opeln, if wins the battle, serves as a reserve for de Lorraine's grand army Com: de Lorraine 3 F vet, 3 C trn 6 sup/8 amm with: von Browne 3 F trn, 2 C vet, 1 A vet 6 sup/8 amm from: Liberec to: Breslau via Oppeln (followed by Nadasdy) 2nd: Prussia Portfolio: 1 - 180 2 - 170 3 - 160 4 - 150 Objective: defend Breslau, defend Oppeln Garrisons: Breslau, Dresden Com: Bevern 3 F vet, 2 C trn, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Breslau to: Breslau with: Zieten 3 F trn, 2 C vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Breslau to: Breslau Com: Winterfeldt (Keith) 4 F vet, 2 C trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Oppeln to: Oppeln In this scenario, Nadalsdy's army must clear the way for de Lorraine's large army by defeating the Prussian army led by von Winterfeldt, who, in any case, leaves the region when de Lorraine arrives, but earns the objective points because Nadalsdy failed to defeat it. Von Winterfeldt's army (who died during the campaign) must be eliminated.

Campaign: Germany Campaign duration: 5 fractions Date: March 3 - July 25, 1757 The facts: France sends an army, initially led by de Soubise, replaced by Le Tellier, to Germany with the intention of invading Hanover and then joining forces with imperial forces to attack Prussia. British General Cumberland assumes command of the Anglo-German allied army to counter the French attack. Map sectors: 4, 5 1st: France Portfolio: 1 - 120 2 - 110 3 - 100 4 - 90 coins Objective: conquer Verden Garrisons: Reims, Brussel, Köln Com: Le Tellier 5 F vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm with: de Soubise 5 F trn, 1 A vet 6 sup/8 amm from: Picardie to: Verden 2nd: Allied (Hanover, Regno Unito) Portfolio: 1 - 120 2 - 110 3 - 100 4 - 90 coins Objective: defend Verden Garrisons: Hannover, Hessen-Kassel Com: Cumberland 4 F vet, 2 C trn 6 sup/8 amm with: Wutginau (Luckner) 3 F trn, 2 C vet, 1 A vet 6 sup/8 amm from: Hannover to: Verden	Campaign: Germany (Prussia) Campaign duration: 6 fractions Date: July 5 - November 5, 1757 The facts: France send a second army under de Soubise from Alsace to Thuringia with the intention of joining up with the Imperial army stationed in Franconia, commanded by von Huldeburghausen, to attack Magdeburg together. Frederick, at the head of a Prussian army, intercepted the Franco-Imperial army in Saxony. Map sectors: 4, 5, 10, 11 1st: France - Empire Portfolio: 1 - 140 2 - 130 3 - 120 4 - 110 coins Objective: conquer Magdeburg Garrisons: Reims, Würzburg, Prag Com: de Soubise 4 F vet, 1 C trn, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Alsace-Lorraine to: Thüringen Com: Hildeburghausen (Hadik) 4 F trn, 1 C vet, 1 A vet 6 sup/8 amm from: Bamberg to: Thüringen Reserve: 2 Imperial F Brigades trained in Thüringen The two armies reunite under the command of Hildburghausen and enter the province of Torgau with the intention of reaching Magdeburg. 2nd: Prussia Portfolio: 1 - 140 2 - 130 3 - 120 4 - 110 coins Objective: defend Magdeburg Garrisons: Leipzig, Magdeburg, Berlin Com: Frederik 4 F vet, 1 C vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm with: Keith 3 F trn, 2 C vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm from: Magdeburg to: Torgau Reserve: 1 veteran F brigade and 1 F brigade trained in Magdeburg Reserves are represented by Brigade markers; they are sent to armies when they suffer losses without the need for Event markers.
Campaign: Germany (Hanover) Campaign duration: 4 fractions Date: November - December 1757 The facts: The King of England refuses to ratify the surrender of Klosterzeven signed by Cumberland on November 10 and entrusts Ferdinand of Brunswick with command of the Allied troops in Hanover, which has been invaded by the French. Starting from Stood, the Anglo-German army attacks Celle, between Hanover and Lüneburg, where the commander-in-chief of the French army, de Richelieu, is stationed. Map sectors: 4, 5 1st: Allied (Hanover) Portfolio: 1 - 1830 2 - 120 3 - 110 4 - 110 coins Objective: conquer Celle (Lüneburg) Garrisons: Hessen-Kassel Com: F. Brunswick 4 F vet, 1 C trn, 1 A vet 4 sup/8 amm with: von Spörcken 4 F trn, 1 C vet, 1 A vet 4 sup/8 amm from: Stood to: Lüneburg Reserves: 2 F vet and 2 F trn brigades at Stood 2nd: France Portfolio: 1 - 130 2 - 120 3 - 110 4 - 100 coins Objective: defend Celle (Lüneburg) Garrisons: Hannover, Lüneburg Com: de Richelieu 3 F trn, 3 C vet 4 sup/8 amm with: de Broglie 4 F vet, 1 C trn, 1 A trn 4 sup/8 amm from: Lüneburg to: Lüneburg Reserves are represented by Brigade markers; they are sent to armies when they suffer losses without the need for Event markers.	Campaign: Germany (Hanover) Campaign duration: 6 fractions Date: February 18 - April 6, 1758 The facts: In the winter of 1758 Ferdinand von Brunswick launch an offensive in western Germany to try to cut off communications between the French units stationed in Westphalia and the main body of the army. Map sectors: 4, 5 1st: Allied Portfolio: 1 - 140 2 - 130 3 - 120 4 - 110 coins Objective: conquer Minden Garrisons: Hessen-Kassel Com: F. Brunswick 5 F vet, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm Reserves: 2 Veteran Brigades at Stood from: Stood to: Minden in French possession Com: W. Brunswick 2 F trn, 2 C vet 6 sup/8 amm from: Stood to: Verden 2nd: France Portfolio: 1 - 140 2 - 130 3 - 120 4 - 100 coins Objective: defend Minden Garrisons: Hannover, Lüneburg Com: Clement (de La Croix) 4 F trn, 1 C trn, 1 A vet 6 sup/8 amm from: Lüneburg to: Minden Com: de Chabo (de Contade) 3 F trn, 1 A vet 6 sup/8 amm from: Verden to: Verden Reserves are represented by Brigade markers; they are sent to armies when they suffer losses without the need for Event markers.

Campaign: North America (Fort Necessity) Campaign duration: 4 fractions Date: July 1754 The facts: Colonel Washington is sent by the governor of Virginia to Ohio to gather intelligence and allies to begin the British colonial advance toward the Ohio Valley. A French force is sent from the Ohio forts to counter Washington's regiment, which is building Fort Necessity as an outpost. Map sectors: 1 1st: France Portfolio: 1 - 70 2 - 60 3 - 55 4 - 50 coins Objective: conquer Ft Necessity Garrisons: Ft Duquesne Com: de Villiers (de Lignery) 5 F trn, 1 A vet 4 sup/8 amm with: 1 Indian marker 2nd: United Kingdom Portfolio: 1 - 60 2 - 55 3 - 50 4 - 45 coins Objective: defend: Ft Necessity Garrisons: Ft Necessity Com: Washington (Murray) 2 F vet, 1 A vet 4 sup/5 amm from: Ft Necessity to: Ft Necessity The British colonial forces await the French column at Fort Necessity, engaging it in a pitched battle that concludes in the fourth phase. If the British suffer no losses, the French retreat. If British units are eliminated, the player moving Washington must draw an Options card; if "The garrison holds out to the bitter end" is rolled, the battle continues. In all other cases, the defenders retreat to the fort, which must be captured by the French within the fourth phase. The Indian markers intervene at the start of the battle with a CS +2	Campaign: North America (Monongahela) Campaign duration: 4 fractions Date: May - July 1754 The facts: General Braddock organizes an expedition to conquer the French forts in Ohio, starting with Fort Duquesne. At the head of a column divided into two sections, he marches from Fort Cumberland toward the French fort, but is surprised by an enemy contingent of French soldiers and Native Americans, which had set out from Fort Duquesne to halt his advance Map sectors: 1 1st: France Portfolio: 1 - 60 2 - 55 3 - 50 4 - 45 coins Objective: defend: Ft. Duquesne Garrisons: Ft Duquesne Com: de Beaujeu (de Bellecombe) 2 F vet, 1 A trn 4 sup/5 amm with: 3 Indian markers 2nd: United Kingdom Portfolio: 1 - 65 2 - 60 3 - 55 4 - 50 coins Objective: conquer Ft. Duquesne Garrisons: Fort Cumberland Com: Braddock (Cambell) 5 F trn, 1 A vet 6 sup/8 amm Reserve: 2 F trained at Ft. Cumberland from: Ft Cumberland to: Ft Duquesne French soldiers emerge from Fort Duquesne to attempt an ambush for the British troops. Draw an Option card to check if the ambush is successful: 1. The ambush is successful, and the French add 2 points to their attack in the first phase and 1 point to their attack in the second phase; 2. The ambush is successful, and the French add 1 point to their attack in the first and second phases; 3. The ambush is successful, and the French add 1 point to their attack in the first phase; 4. The ambush fails. The Indians attack immediately after the ambush attempt with three consecutive attacks. If the British manage to defeat the French, they force them to flee and can attack Fort Duquesne. If they fail to force them to flee, they abandon the battle. The Indian tokens intervene at the start of the battle with a CS +2.
Campaign: North America (Gulf of St. Lawrence) Campaign duration: 4 fractions Date: June 1754 The facts: After the British defeats at Fort Necessity and Monongahela, additional troops were sent to North America. Upon learning of this decision, the French government organize the transport of reinforcements from the mainland to Quebec. Vice Admiral Boscawen is charged with intercepting French convoys in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Map sectors: 2 1st: United Kingdom Portfolio: 1 - 90 2 - 85 3 - 80 4 - 75 Objective: eliminate at least 3 French naval squadrons Garrisons: Halifax Com: Boscawen 4 Veterane 4 sup/6 amm with: 2 Veteran reinforcements in Halifax 2 sup 2 +1 amm from: Halifax to: Gulf of St. Lawrence Gaspasie box 2nd: France Portfolio: 1 - 70 2 - 65 3 - 60 4 - 55 Objective: Bring at least 4 naval teams to Quebec Garrisons: Ft. Louisburg Com: de La Motte (de Rohan) 6 Trained divided into two contingents of 3 teams each 2 sup/4 amm per contingent from: Ft. Louisbourg to: Quebec The scenario is divided into two parts, each with two halves. In the first, the British contingent departs and stops in the space off Gaspasie. In the first turn, three French naval squadrons depart from Ft. Louisburg with four loads of ammunition. They are attacked if the British squadron is in the assigned space; otherwise, they reach Quebec. At the end of the battle the unsunk French ships reach Quebec. The second part begins with the third halves. After reinforcements are sent to Boscawen with three loads of ammunition, the other three French squadrons depart from Ft. Louisburg and engage in a second battle with the same modalities as the first.	Campaign: North America (Lake George) Campaign duration: 5 fractions Date: September 1755 The facts: Colonial commander Johnsson, leading a contingent of irregular troops and Indians, intends to attack and capture Fort Carillon. French General de Dieskau, departing from Fort Saint-Frédéric, leads a column of regular troops and Indians to stop the British and besiege Fort Lyman. The two columns clash at Lake George. Map sectors: 1 1st: France Portfolio: 1 - 70 2 - 65 3 - 60 4 - 55 coins Objective: conquer Ft Lyman defend: Ft Carillon Garrisons: Ft Carillon, Ft Saint-Frédéric Com: de Diskau 5 F trn, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm with: 1 Indian marker 2nd: United Kingdom Portfolio: 1 - 70 2 - 65 3 - 60 4 - 55 coins Objective: conquer Ft. Carillon - defend: Ft. Lyman (Henry) Garrisons: Fort Lyman (Henry) Com: Johnsson (Lee) 5 F trn, 1 A trn 6 sup/8 amm with: 1 Indian marker from: Ft. Lyman (Henry) to: Ft Carillon Since Fort Lyman is not present on the map and its location was close to Fort Henry (which was built after this battle), in the game the French contingent must attempt to capture this fort, but first they must defeat the British column led by Johnsson. In turn, the British column, if it manages to defeat the French, must attempt to capture Fort Carillon. The Indian markers intervene at the start of the battle with a CS +2.